Any such consent, approval, certificate or determination shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.

1.4 Words and Definitions

Words and definitions herein shall have the same meanings as ascribed to them in the Main Contract.

1.5 References

References to the Employer, the Main Contractor, the Purchaser and the Supplier shall be deemed to include references to those deriving title under them.

2. QUANTITY, QUALITY AND DESCRIPTION OF THE GOODS

2.1 The quantity, quality and description of the Goods and any associated services shall comply fully with the Specifications contained in Schedule 5 hereto and other requirements (if any) provided by the Purchaser to the Supplier or otherwise agreed in writing by the Purchaser.

2.2 The Supplier warrants that the Goods and/or Services shall:

2.2.1 be of the respective kinds described in this Agreement, and

2.2.2 be marked in accordance with the Purchaser's instructions and shall be properly packed and secured so as to reach their destination in an undamaged condition in the ordinary course, and

2.2.3 be new, of satisfactory quality and free from defects, and

2.2.4 comply with the Relevant International Standards, and

- 2.2.5 not contain or comprise any materials generally recognized as being deleterious and/or hazardous, and
- 2.2.6 be accompanied by a certificate of the country of origin, and
- 2.2.7 be subject to FAT and site tests at no additional cost to the Purchaser. If the Employer and /or Engineer require to be present FAT, their team will comprise a maximum of 3 representatives and all their expenses incurred in being present shall be borne by the Supplier. The Supplier shall state the amount included in his price to cover these expenses, which amount shall be deducted from the Price in the event that the Employer and/or the Engineer forego such visits.

3. PRICE AND PAYMENT

- 3.1 The Price shall be deemed to be inclusive of any and all taxes, duties and imposts and packaging, carriage and insurance costs incurred in respect of the period up to the time of delivery. No increase in the Price may be made whether by reason of any fluctuation in the cost of material, labour or transport costs fluctuations, rates of exchange or otherwise.
- 3.2 The Supplier shall be entitled to render an invoice to the Purchaser in respect of all or any part of the Price due in accordance with the payment schedule attached hereto at Schedule Three.
- 3.3 The Purchaser shall pay to the Supplier all or any part of the Price due and properly invoiced within the periods and by the manner stated in Schedule 3 attached hereto.
- 3.4 No payment by the Purchaser shall constitute, implied or deemed acceptance by the Purchaser of any defect or deficiency in the Goods or otherwise prejudice the Purchaser's rights pursuant to this Agreement.

4. DELIVERY

- 4.1 The Supplier shall deliver the Goods to the Delivery Address on the Delivery Dates set in Schedule 2.
- 4.2 A packing note clearly identifying the Purchaser's Main Contract reference, the quantity and description of the goods shall accompany each delivery or consignment of the Goods.
- 4.3 The Engineer or the Purchaser shall be entitled to reject any Goods delivered which are not in accordance with this Agreement and, for this purpose, shall not be deemed to have accepted any Goods prior to testing and commissioning.
- 4.4 If the Supplier fails to deliver the Goods to the Delivery Address by the Delivery Dates other than by reason of Force Majeure or acts of prevention or breaches of this Agreement by the Purchaser, then the Purchaser shall be entitled to deduct from the Price or to recover from the Supplier for each week or part of a week of the delay penalties of one percent (1%) but with a maximum aggregate for all such reductions or recoveries of ten percent (10%) of the Price. No such deduction or recovery of penalties shall release the Supplier from its obligations under this Agreement.

4.5 Any deduction under Clause 4.4 shall be made with proper substantiation to prove any damage or loss suffered by Purchaser is due to Supplier's default. The Purchaser may deduct the amount of any such reduction as aforesaid from any monies due or which may become due to the Supplier or recover the same as a debt due from the Supplier.

5. TITLE TO AND RISK IN GOODS

5.1 Title, with regard to the Goods shall pass from the Supplier to the Purchaser when the Goods are delivered to the Delivery Address and acceptance.

5.2 Risk of loss, damage and responsibility with regard to the Goods shall pass from the Supplier to the Purchaser when the Goods are delivered to the Delivery Address.

6. PERFORMANCE BOND

Not applicable

7. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither the Supplier nor the Purchaser shall be in breach of this Agreement to the extent that either is prevented from or delayed or hindered in complying with what would otherwise be its obligations under this Agreement by Force Majeure. The affected party shall use all reasonable endeavours to resume compliance with its full obligations as soon as reasonably practicable and to keep the other party informed about the circumstances and the expected duration of their effects.

8. TERMINATION

8.1 Termination for Breach

The Purchaser may terminate the whole or part of the Agreement by written notice to the Supplier without the need of a court order and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies it may have under the Agreement or at law and without liability to the Supplier if the Supplier:

8.1.1 commits any act of bankruptcy or has a receiving order made against him or shall present his petition in bankruptcy or shall make any arrangement with or assignment in favour of his creditors, or shall agree to carry out the Agreement under a committee of inspection of his creditors or shall go into liquidation or if the Supplier shall assign the Agreement or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Purchaser or shall have an execution levied on his goods, or

8.1.2 fails to supply the items according to the terms of this Agreement, in particular if the Supplier fails to comply with the requirements or instructions of the Purchaser, or

8.1.3 fails to deliver the Goods within 60 days after the Delivery Dates, save where such delay is caused by Force Majeure, or

8.1.4 has incurred liability pursuant to sub-clause 4.4 for penalties in reaching ten per cent (10%) of the Price, or

8.1.5 if persistently or flagrantly neglecting to comply with any of his obligations under this Agreement, or

8.1.6 the Employer/Engineer demands the dismissal of the Supplier in accordance with the terms of the Main Contract, then the Purchaser may, after giving seven days' notice to the Supplier, terminate the Supplier's employment.

In the event the Agreement is terminated under this Clause 8.1, the Supplier shall be liable to the Purchaser for all liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees) the Purchaser incurs in completing the agreement and in fulfilling Supplier's obligations.

The Purchaser, notwithstanding any further rights and claims against the Supplier, is entitled to retain the guarantees furnished by the Supplier and to demand payment there from pending settlement of the Purchaser's claims as well as to retain any moneys due or that become due to the Supplier.

8.2. Termination for Convenience

8.2.1 The Purchaser may terminate without cause all or any part of the Agreement at any time by written notice to Supplier without the need of a court order. Immediately upon receipt of such notice of termination or upon such other date as may be specified in said notice, the Supplier shall cease all work in connection with the Agreement except as otherwise directed by the Purchaser. Upon termination pursuant to this Clause 8.2, the Purchaser shall pay and the Supplier shall accept as full compensation the Supplier's actual direct out-of-pocket costs, incurred to the date of termination, including the Supplier's reasonable expenses in connection with the termination of Work being undertaken by sub-suppliers, all as approved by the Purchaser.

8.2.2 Supplier shall take all reasonable steps to minimize its costs and losses and the Purchaser's liability under this Clause 8.2., shall in no event exceed the Agreement price.

8.3. Termination under the Main Contract

Save the case where the Main Contract is terminated due to the default of the Supplier, if the Main Contract is terminated for convenience or otherwise, the entitlements of the Suppliers in sub clause 8.2 shall apply.

8.4 Until the goods pertaining to this Agreement are finally approved by the Employer/Engineer the Purchaser will be entitled to alter or cancel the whole or part of this Agreement and the Supplier hereby waives and relinquishes any rights under this Agreement in respect to the said items.

8.5 Suspension of Performance

8.5.1 The Supplier shall have no right to suspend the performance of the Work. Except in the event of any payment default/delay by the Purchaser. The Purchaser may at any time instruct the Supplier to suspend the performance of the Work or portion thereof by giving written notice to the Supplier. The Supplier shall discontinue performance under the Agreement to the extent specified in the notice of suspension, place no further orders or subcontracts with respect to the suspended part of the Work (other than as required in the notice) and take all other reasonable steps to minimize costs associated with such suspension.

8.5.2 Except where the Purchaser has suspended performance of the Work or part thereof under the Agreement for Supplier' breach and/or by reason of Force Majeure, the Purchaser shall reimburse to the Supplier the direct costs (excluding any profit element) attributable to the suspension which are incurred during the suspension period, provided that

- (a) the same are reasonable and properly evidenced in writing and
- (b) the Supplier has complied in all material respects with its obligations under this clause 8.5

9. ASSIGNMENT

9.1 The Supplier shall not assign, charge or otherwise dispose of all or any of its rights under this Agreement without the specific prior written consent of the Purchaser.

10. MISCELLANEOUS

10.1 The Purchaser's rights shall not be prejudiced or restricted by any concession, indulgence or forbearance extended to the Supplier.

10.2 If the Supplier comprises two or more persons, their obligations are joint and several.

10.3 All the Supplier's equipment, plant, machinery and materials where applicable, shall, when brought onto the Site, be deemed to be exclusively intended for the execution of the Subcontract works and the Supplier shall not remove the same or any part thereof, except for the purpose of moving them from one part of the Site to another, without the consent of the Engineer which consent shall not be required for vehicles engaged in transporting any staff, labor, equipment, material or plant to or from the Site.

10.4 The Purchaser shall not at any time be liable for any loss of or damage to any of the Supplier's equipment, plant or materials excepting only the goods which are the subject of this Supply Agreement when such goods have been delivered to and formally accepted at time of delivery at Site.

10.5 With a view to securing, in the event of termination, the continued availability, for the purpose of executing the Subcontract works, of any hired equipment or plant, the Supplier shall not bring on to the Site any hired equipment or plant unless there is an agreement for the hire thereof which contains a provision that the owner thereof will, on request in writing made by the Purchaser within seven days after the date on which any termination has become effective, and on the Purchaser's undertaking to pay all reasonable and documented hire charges in respect thereof from such date, hire such Supplier's equipment and plant to the Purchaser on the same terms in all respects as the same was hired to the Supplier, save that the Purchaser shall be entitled to permit the use thereof for the purpose of executing and completing the Subcontract works and remedying any defects therein.

11. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

11.1 The Supplier shall procure all licenses, consents, permissions, patents and the like required to ensure that the supply and use (including any maintenance and repairs) of the Goods do not infringe any patent rights, trademarks, copyright or other intellectual property rights. Ownership of the intellectual property rights in or associated with the Goods shall remain vested in the Supplier but to the extent necessary to permit the Purchaser to receive, install, operate, maintain, adapt or repair the Goods, the Purchaser shall be granted a non-exclusive, royalty free license or permission therein. To the extent that the Supplier is provided by or on behalf of the Purchaser with any specifications, drawings, calculations or the like, ownership of the copyright, design rights or other intellectual property rights therein shall not be transferred to the Supplier but to the extent necessary for the performance of the Supplier's obligations pursuant to this Agreement, the Supplier shall be granted a non-exclusive royalty free license or permission therein.

11.2 The Supplier shall indemnify hold harmless and defend the Purchaser against any and all actions, claims, demands, costs, charges, liabilities and expenses arising from or incurred by reason of any infringement of letters patent, registered designs, copyright, trademarks or trade names by the use or possession of any Goods supplied by the Supplier to the Purchaser.

12. SEVERANCE

The invalidity, in whole or in part, of any of the provisions of the Agreement shall not affect the remainder of such provision or any other provision of the Agreement. To the extent allowable under the law applicable to the Agreement, the parties agree in good faith to replace any such invalid provision by a lawful provision having proximate economic effect.

13. NOTICES

13.1 Any notice or other communication to be given under the terms of this Agreement shall be delivered by hand or sent by post, courier, electronic mail or facsimile transmission. Any such notice shall be effective upon delivery (in the case of delivery by hand or by post) and upon dispatch (in the case of courier, electronic mail or facsimile transmission) and shall be addressed if to the Purchaser at the address shown above, and if to the Supplier at its principal place of business.

13.2 The sending of any notice or other communication by facsimile transmission shall forthwith confirm the same by letter sent by registered post but the failure of the addressee to receive such letter shall not prejudice the effectiveness of such facsimile.

14. INDEMNITY

The Supplier shall indemnify the Purchaser, whether during or after the performance of the Agreement, for any damage resulting from acts or omissions of the Supplier, as well as any deaths and for any physical injury caused by the Supplier. The Supplier's liability shall include its subcontractors, representatives and agents. The above compensation shall cover, where applicable, the related costs and court orders resulting from any proceedings or trial. However, the maximum limit of Supplier's liability under this agreement shall not exceed the total value of this agreement and/or actual amount paid to Supplier by the Purchaser, whichever is higher with maximum of contract value.

15. CONFIDENTIALITY

15.1 The Supplier shall treat the details of this Agreement as private and confidential, save insofar as may be necessary for the purpose thereof, and shall not publish or disclose the same or any particulars thereof in any trade or technical paper or elsewhere without the previous consent in writing of the Purchaser. If any dispute arises as to the necessity of any publication or disclosure for the purpose of this Agreement, the same shall be referred to the decision of the Employer whose declaration shall be final.

15.2 The provisions of the present Clause shall remain in full force throughout the term of the Agreement and for five (5) years after the end of the Agreement, regardless of the reasons why the Agreement may end.

16. GOVERNING LAW AND LANGUAGE

16.1 This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws and regulations of the United Arab Emirates and the laws of the Emirate of Dubai.

16.2 The Supplier's employees, agents shall, while present at the Site, abide by and comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Purchaser.

16.3 English shall be the binding and controlling language for all matters relating to the meaning or interpretation of the Agreement unless otherwise stated.

17. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

The Agreement shall be and incorporate the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties in relation to all matters contained therein and supersedes any previous written or oral agreements, negotiations, commitments, communications and representations of any kind. Schedule one to schedule Eight shall be deemed as an integral part of the agreement.

18. ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND SAFETY (EHS) & COMPLIANCE

18.1 Project EHS plan should follow for all activities at project site.

19. MODIFICATION, AMENDMENT, VARIATION OR WAIVER

19.1 No modification, amendment, variation or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective as per approved material submittal, shop drawing and authority approval unless made in writing, specifically referred to this Agreement and the relevant modification, amendment, variation or waiver (as the case may be) and duly signed by each party.

19.2 During the term of the Agreement, the Purchaser has the right to request any variations to the Agreement and the Supplier shall accept the variations that the Purchaser requires. The related price may be adjusted in order to consider the said variation, based on the rates and prices indicated in the Agreement or, if these are not applicable, by agreement reached in good faith by the Purchaser and the Supplier on the basis of what is fair and reasonable. Failing agreement, the appropriate adjustment shall be determined in accordance with clause 25.

19.3 Any variation to the Agreement shall only be binding upon written request by the Purchaser.

20. WARRANTIES

20.1 General Provisions

20.1.1 Supplier represents and warrants that: (a) the Goods and/or Services will be free from all defects in design, workmanship and material, is in strict conformity with the specifications, drawings and other requirements of the Agreement and that the goods are new, of good and satisfactory quality and fit for the purposes for which they are intended, (b) Supplier possesses the necessary expertise, facilities and equipment required to perform the services and that such services will be performed in a safe and workmanlike manner by qualified and efficient personnel, and (c) all Goods and/or Services provided pursuant to the Agreement will be free of claims of any nature including title claims and Supplier will cause to be discharged any lien or encumbrance at its sole cost within thirty (30) calendar days of occurrence.

20.1.2 If the Supplier is in breach of its obligation hereunder, the Purchaser shall have the right, either by itself or through a third party of its choice, to remedy the breach at the Supplier's cost and risks. In such event, the Supplier shall do everything necessary to assist the Purchaser and/or the third party in remedying such breach (including but not limited to providing tools, plans, studies and any other necessary documents).

20.2 Warranty applicable to production Goods or Services

20.2.1 During the warranty period, as stated in schedule 7 thereto the Supplier shall correct or replace or attend, at its expense, any defect notified to it by the Purchaser, within a period not to exceed two (2) working days as from the written notification sent by the Purchaser. To this end, it shall apply the most appropriate solution between repair, replacement of the defective part in the Goods and/or Services, or re-design of the Goods and/or Services, subject to Purchaser's consent thereto. Replacement, repair or re-design operations shall cover all of the Goods and/or Services to be delivered in the context of a single Purchase Order, including spare parts. The Supplier shall also cover the costs relating to the logistics, disassembly and installation of the Goods, as applicable.

20.2.2 Any replacement or repair, even partial, of/to the Goods and/or Services affected by a defect shall give rise to the recommencement of a 24 months warranty period stated in schedule seven covering the Goods and/or Services on the date upon which the repair or replacement is completed.

21. OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS

Any other documents deemed to be relevant to this agreement are listed in Schedule 8 hereto and where so noted are attached to this agreement. Where documents listed are not noted as attached the Supplier is deemed to have been given the opportunity to see and to have had sight of same. These other related documents in schedule 8 take the least priority over the other documents of this contract agreement.

22. ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION PROVISIONS

The Supplier represents warrants and undertakes to the Purchaser that:

- (a) In carrying out its responsibilities under this Agreement, it shall at all times comply with all applicable local and international laws. In particular, neither it nor any of its officers, employees, directors or agents shall, directly or indirectly offer, promise, pay or give, or authorize any offer, promise, payment or gift of, money or anything else of value to any person, including any Public Official or other Relevant Person, either as an improper inducement to make, or as an improper reward for making, any decision favorable to the interests of the Purchaser or the Supplier;
- (b) none of its Principals is a Public Official or Relevant Person;
- (c) neither it nor any of its Principals has any connection with a Public Official or Relevant Person that has not been disclosed to the Purchaser; and

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if the Purchaser becomes aware of what it determines to good faith to be a breach of the above representations and warranties, the Purchaser is entitled to terminate this Agreement, and any other agreement between the parties, with immediate effect. In the event of such termination, the Purchaser shall have no liability to the Supplier under this Agreement for any fees, reimbursements or other compensation or for any other loss, cost, claim or damage resulting, directly or indirectly, from such termination.
